"Confidential Information" means all non-public information disclosed by one party to the other, whether in writing, orally or electronically, that is marked confidential or should reasonably be understood to be confidential. Clause 2. Scope of Work

The Contractor shall design, build and maintain the Client's website, including the homepage, product pages, a blog section and a contact form. Any work outside this scope requires a written change request signed by both parties, and the Contractor is not obliged to perform out-of-scope work until the change request is approved. The Contractor shall perform the services with reasonable skill and care and in accordance with generally accepted industry standards.

Clause 3. Client Responsibilities

The Client shall provide all content, brand assets, logins and feedback in a timely manner. Where the Client delays providing required materials by more than five (5) Business Days, the delivery dates in this Agreement shall be extended by an equivalent period. The Client shall designate one representative with authority to approve Deliverables and answer questions on behalf of the Client.

Clause 4. Term

A milestone not rejected within that period is deemed accepted. The Contractor shall correct any properly notified defects within a reasonable time at no additional charge.

Clause 6. Fees

The Client shall pay the Contractor USD 6,500 per month. Each invoice must be paid within 30 days of receipt.

Clause 7. Project Management

Clause 8. Late Payment

A late fee of 2% per week shall apply to any late payment.

Clause 9. Intellectual Property

All Deliverables are assigned to the Client upon full payment of all invoices. Until full payment, the Contractor retains ownership and grants the Client a limited, non-exclusive licence to use the Deliverables for evaluation purposes. The Contractor retains ownership of its pre-existing tools, libraries and know-how, and grants the Client a perpetual licence to use them as embedded in the Deliverables.

Clause 10. Third-Party Materials

The Contractor may use open-source components in the Deliverables, subject to their respective licences. The Contractor shall inform the Client of any third-party component that requires a paid licence before incorporating it. The Client is responsible for the licences of any materials it supplies to the Contractor.

Clause 11. Confidentiality

Each party shall keep the other party's Confidential Information secret, use it only for the purposes of this Agreement, and disclose it only to employees and advisers who need to know it and who are bound by similar obligations. These obligations survive for three (3) years after the end of this Agreement but do not apply to information that is public through no fault of the receiving party.

Clause 12. Data Protection

Each party shall comply with the data protection laws that apply to it. Where the Contractor processes personal data on behalf of the Client, it shall do so only on the Client's documented instructions, shall keep the data secure, and shall notify the Client without undue delay after becoming aware of a data breach.

Clause 13. Warranties

The Contractor warrants that the Deliverables will not knowingly infringe the intellectual property rights of any third party and will materially conform to the agreed specifications for ninety (90) days after acceptance. Except as expressly stated in this Agreement, all other warranties, conditions and terms are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The Contractor shall maintain professional indemnity insurance appropriate to the services throughout the term of this Agreement and shall provide evidence of that insurance to the Client upon reasonable request.

Clause 16. Subcontracting

The Contractor may not subcontract any part of the services without the Client's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Contractor remains responsible for the acts and omissions of any approved subcontractor as if they were its own.

Clause 17. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable for any delay or failure to perform caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including natural disasters, war, government action, power or internet outages, or pandemic restrictions, provided that it notifies the other party promptly and uses reasonable

Clause 18. Termination

The Client may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving 7 days' written notice. The Contractor may terminate only by giving 90 days' written notice and must refund any prepaid fees.
